Welcome

The Charles River Chorale welcomes you to "Spring Swing", our Twenty-Ninth Spring Concert.

We have had a lot of fun this season with artistic director Roy S. Kelley and accompanist Matthew Jaroszewicz preparing for our performance. This program reaches back in time, jazzing it up with pieces such as "Charade" and "Handful of Keys". A perfect blend of music to usher in the spring weather we have been waiting so long for!

Part of our mission as a community chorale is to further the musical opportunities in our towns. To that end we have awarded music scholarships in the past, and this year embarked on a new journey as the sponsor of a children's choir. Tonight the Charles River Chorale is so very proud to introduce the Charles River Children's Choir, directed by Sharon Hamel. We are thankful to Sharon for her energy, passion and commitment to grow this program.

The money raised from our Outreach Raffle will be used to sponsor the Children's Choir and other community projects. We also ask that you remember to visit and support the businesses who advertise with us and in our program. They are a large part of how we are able to bring our music to you and now to our children. We would like to thank our sponsors for their dedication to the cultural enrichment of our communities. The Mother's Day Gift Baskets on the stage will be raffled separately at the end of the concert at the reception.

Please enjoy the reception following the program with friends, family and members of the Chorale.

Thank You & Come Again!
Greg Quilop, CRC Chair

Roy S. Kelley is a graduate of the University of Vermont. He served the educational field in Vermont and Massachusetts as a music specialist for 31 years. On the Masters level, he studied choral conducting with Lorna Cooke de Varon at the New England Conservatory of Music. Roy served as President of the New England Chapter of the American Orff-Schulwerk Association having received his Orff Teaching Certificate from the Boston Conservatory. He is also a member of the American Choral Directors' Association, NAFME (National Association for Music Education) as well as the American Guild of Organists.

As you know, since 2001, Roy is also Artistic Director of the Snug Harbor Community Chorus in Duxbury, MA.

He is in his 19th year as Organist/ Choirmaster for the Parish of St. John the Evangelist Church in Duxbury, where he directs the Senior and Youth Choirs.

During his teaching days, Roy was guest conductor for All-State (RI) and District Festivals (NH & MA), as well as an adjudicator for several Massachusetts District Festivals and guest clinician at an All-State Music Festival. He has also resumed private teaching-both piano and voice.

In October 2011, Roy attended his 50th reunion from the University of Vermont, and performed with two classmates at the banquet. The trio were members of the circa 1961 "Festival Minstrels" - from the Champlain Shakespeare Festival, and had not seen each other in 50 years, but when they stepped on stage at the reunion it was just like they had performed the night before.

In July, Roy will attend the annual American Choral Director's Summer Conference at Smith College in Northampton, MA. This is the 'renewal' time in preparation for the 2014-15 Season, also the 30th Anniversary Season for the Charles River Chorale. Also in July, he will collaborate with South Shore Conservatory's, EVENING UNDER THE STARS concert of Gilbert & Sullivan's HMS Pinafore, as presented by "Opera By The Bay". And the beat goes on.....

Accompanist

Matthew J. Jaroszewicz

Matthew Jenkins Jaroszewicz is a 2012 graduate of Brown University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music, and is currently pursuing a career as a conductor. In addition to accompanying the Charles River Chorale, he is the Organist/Choir-master at St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Holliston, and Music Director of the Wakefield Choral Society. Matthew first became interested in conducting in high school, but it was at Brown where his interest turned into a career path. He began as music director of Brown Univ. Gilbert & Sullivan, (BUGS). While conducting and performing with them, he served as one of the groups' primary accompanists. He continues his involvement with BUGS as a resident of Providence.

Matthew also sang in Brown's Disney A Cappella group, became their music director in 2012 and wrote several arrangements for them. Additionally, he played 1st Tenor Sax. for four years in the Brown Univ. Jazz Band, and sang in the choir of Grace Episcopal Church in Providence, under the direction of Mark Johnson.

In the summer of 2010, Matthew directed and conducted over 70 people in his own production of Ralph Vaughan Williams' opera "The Pilgrim's Progress" at Christ Church Cathedral in Cincinnati, Ohio.

He continued to pursue his interest in Vaughan Williams' music by conducting the opera "Riders to the Sea" as a senior project at Brown in 2012.

Matthew has studied conducting at the 2011 New York Summer Music Festival, with James Fellenbaum, and the 2011 Atlantic Music Festival, studying with Jonathan Schiffman. This past summer, he attended the Spazio Musica Opera Workshop, in Orvieto, Italy, where he studied conducting with Vittorio Parisi and worked on a production of Mozart's "The Marriage of Figaro".

Matthew is a native of Cincinnati where he attended both the School for Creative and Performing Arts, and Walnut Hills High School, graduating in 2008. He studied classical piano from 1996-2006 with Irina Minevich. Away from the keyboard and podium, Matthew is an avid runner and swimmer, training for and competing in numerous half marathons, open water swims, and swim meets. He is also an ardent and devoted fan of the Cincinnati Reds.
